Oliver, Ivan James

My experience of over 45 years covers three broad areas, the Civil Service, teaching and crofting. I worked at managerial level in the Civil Service in settings in which I had responsibility for the work of up to 40 people. As a teacher my experience has been exclusively with adults, primarily as a University lecturer, although with some experience of adult education and with part-time Open University tuition. I was my department's Senior Tutor and I am currently a University Honorary Fellow. For the past 18 years I have been a Crofter engaged in the rearing of Highland cattle. I am a member of the Township Grazings Committee and am currently the Grazings Clerk.
