

ALBYN HOUSING SOCIETY LIMITED

EXECUTIVE TEAM INFORMATION

Calum Macaulay: Chief Executive

Calum has been involved in housing for 22 years. Calum was appointed Chief Executive in June 2001, following two years as Acting Chief Executive. Prior to that Calum was the Society's Housing Services Director. He has a Diploma in Housing Administration from the University of Stirling and attained the professional qualification of the Chartered Institute of Housing. In addition he has a BSc (Hons) degree from the University of Southampton. Calum's career has included several years as the senior manager in two fully-mutual housing co-operatives, at Lister and Hunters Hall Co-ops in Edinburgh, along with a senior post in a community based housing association in Glasgow. Calum joined the Society in 1991.

Donald Lockhart: Development Director

Donald has an MA (Hons) degree from the University of Glasgow, a Diploma in Housing Administration from the University of Stirling and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Housing. He worked previously as a Development Officer with Port of Leith Housing Association in Edinburgh and as Regional Repairs Officer with the SSHA. Donald has been with the Society since 1989.

Helen Barton: Housing and Communities Director

Helen has a BA (Hons) degree from Sheffield University and is a fellow of the Chartered Institute of Housing. She has worked in Housing Management for over 17 years and at a senior level for over 13 years. Helen moved from a local authority background to work for the housing management department of Scottish Homes in 1990 and then as a Senior Manager with Cairn Housing Association in the North of Scotland for six years until taking up her current position with the Society in September 2001.

John Clarke: Property Maintenance Director

John started his career by working for eight years as a Surveyor for the National Coal Board in Scotland. He then spent five years working as a Property Adviser for Fife Healthcare/Primary Care NHS Trust before moving to the Highland Council where he spent eight years, finishing up as Head of Property and Maintenance. John joined the Society in January 2009.

Robin Nairn: Finance and IT Director

Robin is a Member of the Chartered Institute of Accountants of Scotland, admitted 1982. Previously, Robin worked in general accountancy and professional services until 1993 when he joined Albyn as Head of Finance.

