

RESTORATION OF HEATHLAND

In connection with the current consultation exercise, I should like add my name to the list of those persons supporting the call for the heathland and related areas of land which have been poorly managed in the past by the Forestry Commission to be restored to ensure the best outcomes for wildlife. In particular such a program is essential to support and encourage the wide range of threatened and unique wildlife from disappearing. Yours sincerely Robert Shaw