Warning

If you knowingly make a false statement to obtain grant for yourself or anyone else you may be liable to a fine or imprisonment.

A false or misleading statement made to obtain grant for yourself or anyone else, or any steps you take which prejudice any of the above declarations, may also mean that approval given will be revoked and any grants withheld or recovered in full with interest. In addition, it may result in your exclusion from the scheme for five years and from any of the forestry measures operated under the England Rural Development programme for up to two years.

Farm Woodland Payment and Woodland Management Grant grants may also be postponed, withheld or recovered in full with interest, if the establishment and maintenance of the trees has not been carried out to the satisfaction of the Forestry Commissioners.
