

Workshop objectives

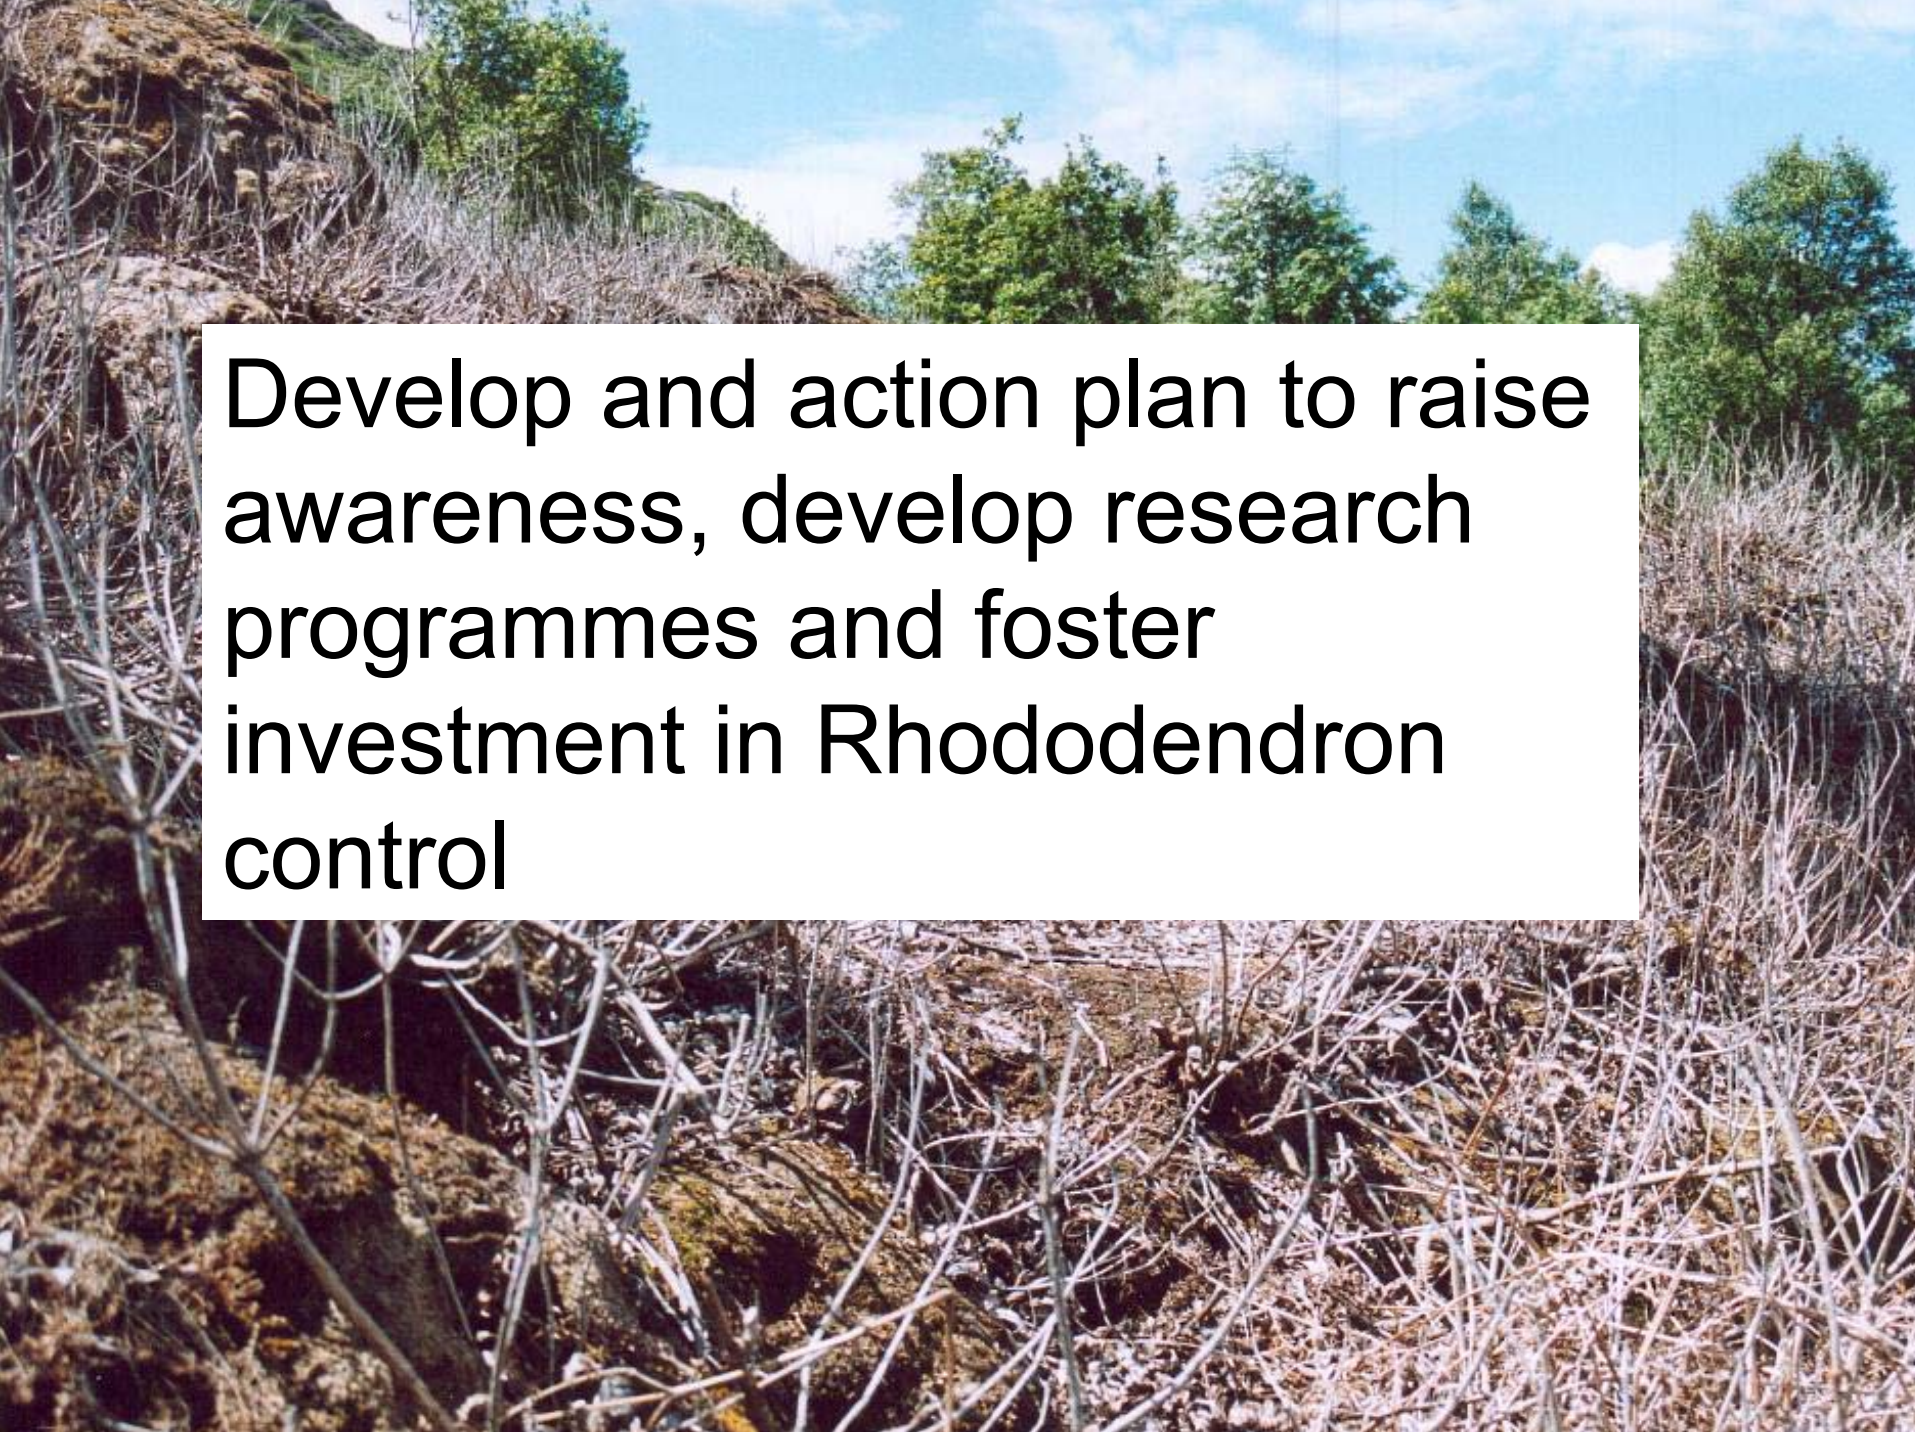

A photograph of a forest with tall, thin trees and dense green undergrowth, including purple flowers.

Collate experience to determine best practice in a range of environments and suited to varying management objectives

Develop a Rhododendron control network to facilitate exchange between practitioners and researchers

Develop and action plan to raise awareness, develop research programmes and foster investment in Rhododendron control

What you want ...

Strategic planning at landscape scale	Thursday
Best practice guide	Thursday
Herbicide use	Today
Cost effectiveness and financing	Wednesday
Non-chemical control methods	Hafod y Llan
Lack of awareness of problem from public and neighbouring landowners	Today
Managing contractors	Wednesday
Cliff top clearance	Aberglaslyn
Site management after clearance	Site visits
Successful rhody programme example	Hopefully!
Share results of research	Today
Using aerial survey and GIS as management tool	Thursday
Best types of machinery	Field visits
International collaboration	Thursday
Vegetation management approach	Thursday
Biological and integrated control	Thursday
Indicators of successful habitat restoration	Coed Cae'n y Coed