There will be no charge for this event.

This event will provide key stakeholders with an update on the status of the chalara fraxinea (Ash Dieback) disease in Scotland and your local area, how the disease is being monitored, and highlight guidance on how to identify/manage diseased woodland.

This is one of three events to be held across Scotland in March.

Programme:

- 14.00 Coffee
- 14.30 Intro & Welcome (John Dougan, Conservator, South Scotland Conservancy)
- 14.35 Update on Chalara ash dieback and the regional context (Hugh Clayden, Tree Health Policy Advisor, FCS)
- 15.00 Overview of research on Chalara ash dieback (Dr Steven Hendry, Forest Research)
- 15.25 The Strategy for dealing with Chalara ash dieback (Hugh Clayden)
- 16.00 Open discussion
- 16.30 Summing up and depart

I wish to attend the Ash Dieback Update event on Monday 25 March at:

The Moffat House Hotel, High Street, Dumfries and Galloway, DG10 9HL
