

SEMINARS 2005/6

Northern Research Station

28 October 2005	Alan Thomson Canadian Forest Service, Pacific Forestry Centre, BC	Knowledge ecosystems, institutions and the internet
18 November 2005	Genevieve Patenaude School of Geosciences, University of Edinburgh	Quantifying forest carbon stocks in UK forests to meet Kyoto targets and the role of remote sensing in forestry.
9 December 2005	Chris Smout University of St. Andrews	Respecting the past: woodland as cultural heritage
20 January 2006	Douglas MacMillan Dept of Geography and Environment, University of Aberdeen	The use of expert judgement in forest ecology modelling
24 February 2006	Zoe Laird FC Scotland, Edinburgh	The Scottish Native Woodlands Survey Pilot Project
10 March 2006	Peter Baxter Benmore Botanic Gardens, Royal Botanic Gardens Edinburgh	Enriching the Benmore Collection
24 March 2006	Arne Pommerening Experimental Silviculture Research Group, University of Wales	Measuring and Simulating Spatial Woodland Structure
21 April 2006	Allan Watt Centre for Ecology and Hydrology, Banchory	Detecting and Understanding Change in Biodiversity
12 May 2006	Paul Tabbush Alice Holt, Forest Research	Impact assessment, landscape and people

All seminars take place in the library at Forest Research, Northern Research Station at 1330 hrs. Please try to arrive by 1325 hrs. If you are travelling to attend, please telephone beforehand to check that the seminar is still on. Tel: 0131 445 2176/6990.

For more details please e-mail: roger.moore@forestry.gsi.gov.uk Tel: 0131 445 6923