

Phytophthora ramorum affecting larch trees in south west England. The trees should all be a healthy green.

Aerial survey of woodland to check for the presence of Phytophthora ramorum.

Japanese larch tree killed by Phytophthora ramorum.

Phytophthora ramorum zoospore squeezing out of sporangium, x100.

Cankers symptomatic of Phytophthora ramorum infection on larch tree.

Tree Health Diagnostic and Advisory Service
www.forestry.gov.uk/fr/ddas

www.forestry.gov.uk/fr/protectingtrees

Web link to Phytophthora information