

Terms and conditions:

1. The Forestry Commission (FC) bylaws must be observed and any contravention of the condition of issue of this permit may result in prosecution.
2. The permission holder will indemnify the FC against all or any claim arising out of the exercise of this permit.
3. Members of the public enter FC land and buildings entirely at their own risk on the understanding that they will have no claim whatsoever against the FC for any loss, damage or injury howsoever suffered or caused.
4. This permit must be produced upon request to any FC officer who may require the barbecue to be extinguished if conditions are considered dangerous.
5. No natural vegetation to be taken from the forest for burning on the barbecue.
6. Cooking must be confined to the barbecue hearth provided.
7. The permission holder will be the responsible person for the control of the barbecue, overall supervision of the proceedings, for the supply of charcoal and utensils and for the removal of rubbish.
8. The site must be left clean and tidy to the satisfaction of the FC.
9. All litter must be taken away and disposed of properly. No bags of rubbish may be left at the barbecue site or by the side of the bins.
10. Hot coals must be left to cool naturally in the hearth.
11. The function is to be conducted in such a manner as to cause no offence to any persons lawfully and peacefully using the forest.
12. No loud or amplified music is permitted in the forest. Lighting generators or other powered equipment are not allowed unless prior permission has been granted.
13. No portable barbecues, disposable barbecues, fires or camp stoves whatsoever are allowed within the forest.
14. Small gazebos are allowed. No party sized tents.
15. Bouncy castles and some other large items of entertainment are not allowed. If in doubt, please speak to a member of staff at the Information Point.
16. There are no refunds for cancellations. In the event of extreme local weather conditions, an alternative date may be agreed with High Lodge subject to the hirer contacting High Lodge before 11am on the day of the booking and subject to availability.
17. Site entry fees are applicable for the duration of your visit.
18. Barbecues are not available over concert weekends and some other events held on site. Details posted on the website: www.forestry.gov.uk/highlodge
