

Chair

Iain Taylor

Partnerships Director with the Peel Group with interests in community forestry and environmental regeneration

Forest Industry & Landownership

Nick Stanley

Woodland owner, biomass pioneer and social entrepreneur with rural and urban interests.

Edward Wilson

Silviculturist who has been a passionate forest conservationist and outdoorsman for over 30 years.

Chris Starr

Independent forestry consultant. Specialising in woodland management, learning and development, forest policy and regulation.

Edward Mills

Chartered forester and environmentalist with extensive experience of work in the public sector. Interest in commercial forestry and a passion for woodland biodiversity.

Social, Access & Environment

Peter Bullard

Land management professional and qualified ecologist with extensive experience of managing ancient semi-natural woodlands. Specialist knowledge of native trees, woodland flowers, ferns, mosses and liverworts.

Francis Hesketh

Experienced ecologist with a special interest in landscape design and arboriculture. Advocate for sustainable urban environments through good design and conservation of natural resources.

Richard Denyer

Former Chief Executive of 4 associations in fields such as food, clothing, water and health, is now a trustee, Non Executive Director and adviser on strategy, governance, regulation and the voluntary sector.

Anne Selby

Environmental and social professional with a wide range of experience in public, private and voluntary sectors and a passion for reconnecting people to the natural environment.

Local Community, Economy & Government

Steve Connor

Co-founder and CEO of Creative Concern. With expertise in climate change, place making, transport, food issues, forestry and the natural environment.

David Hunter

Countryside Management and Rural Development professional with a wide range of experience delivering large complex programmes and producing effective policies that influence National and Regional activity.

Joseph Dwek

Chair and CEO of Penmarric with varied interests and Board positions