

Grizedale

Visitor Experience Volunteer

Grizedale Forest is a busy hub offering a variety of unique experiences and activities for visitors. Since the late 1960's Grizedale Forest has been a pioneer of opening up forests as places for visitors to experience, leading the way in recreation and leisure in England's public forests. The unique selling points of the forest are the range of adventurous activities available and the landmark sculpture programme that was founded in 1977 and continues to this day to commission and present the best of art in the environment.

Grizedale's vision: "to provide a consistently high quality visitor experience for the public to enjoy healthy outdoor pursuits in attractive, sustainable and safe environment".

Visitor Experience Volunteers will support us in providing our visitors with an excellent experience of Grizedale because they love their local forest.

In this key role you will provide a warm welcome and build positive rapport with visitors, as well as providing information to help them to make their visit a memorable one. By passing on your knowledge and sharing your enthusiasm for the forest you will contribute to visitors leaving Grizedale with a greener heart.
