

FORESTRY COMMISSION SITE SAFETY RULES

Contract no.:		Start date:
Contractor:		Completion date:
Location:		Job / task:	Mechanised Harvesting & Extraction

FISA Guides applicable to the contract: (Delete as appropriate to site operations) Required ✓/✗
Chainsaws
301 – Petrol driven chainsaws		306 – Chainsaw clearance of windblow
302 – Basic chainsaw felling & manual takedown		307 – Chainsaw felling of large trees
303 – Chainsaw snedding		310 – Use of winches in directional felling & takedown
304 – Chainsaw Cross cutting & manual stack
Processing
501 – Tractor units in tree work		605 – Mechanical Road side Processing
603 – Mechanical Harvesting
Extraction
502 – Extraction by Skidder		504 – Cable Crane Extraction
503 – Extraction by Forwarder
General Safety
703 – Debugging and recovery of forest machines		802 – Emergency Planning
704 – Excavators in tree work		804 – Electricity at Work, Forestry & Arb.
705 – steep slope working in forestry		805 – Training & certification.
801 – Noise/Hearing conservation
Lone working and emergency planning	NB. Mobile phone signal can be average in some areas  Other procedure (Detail):
Accident reporting	For guidance on what you need to report under RIDDOR please refer the HSE web site: http://www.hse.gov.uk/riddor/what-must-i-report.htm
Other	1. Mechanical support services or associated work should refer to site risk assessment attached and refer to their own risk assessments for tasks to be undertaken whilst on site.  2. Hauliers and fuel deliveries should refer to site risk assessment attached and to the site maps provided. They should also adhere to the Road Haulage of Round Timber Code of Practice.
Person in Charge in Absence of FWM	Name:.....  Signature: ..... Date:
FWM	Name:.....  Signature: ..... Date:		