

Forestry Commission Access Statement

To make our publications accessible and available to everyone, whether they are visually impaired or whether English is not their first language, the Diversity Team in Silvan House has put in place a central service to provide language translations, large print and other alternative formats of publications on request.

The full text, which should appear on the back cover of all publications in a minimum type size of 12pt (or 2.3mm x-height equivalent) is:

If you need this publication in an alternative format, for example in large print or in another language, please contact:
